Wilson Chapman

Dear Sir I rec'd the 18th Inst the same day I wrote you the postal & am well pleased with the price & appearance

When I first wrote you I enquired the price it would probably bring. I expected to send it you & am inclined to if you did not estimate it beyond what I felt able to pay In your last letter you its the actual figure. I from the correspondence with you & the catalogue
I understood

ment of your judgment I if necessary advance five dollars rather than not secure the piece I think I considered a $37 bill I now see I should have redated it - I would if I had taken a second thought; although I much prefer to let you buy on your own judgment.
I certainly admired the gentlemen feelings in the matter & although I like him much better prefer to give an accurate bill than I if I secured the piece through your influence; I should return it to you if your business relations were to be in the least influenced between you & him.
Also enclose your last receipt which please enter I have made a selection & request you to check to [illegible] 1881 [illegible]

I have 3 returns yet

1/2	Bal on former a/c.	$11.31
	Dime 1804	26.40
	Dolls 1794 Fine	10.50
	" 1802	4.25
	" 1839	42.75
	Sent Draft to bal.	$112.31

I should have no more money to invest in coins for some time to come unless you would prefer to open a Dr & Cr account between those you ask & buy for me. In case you are satisfied as please state & also give me a low estimate as to what the coins will net me, if you can.

If you should have any of the catalogues of old books mentioned in Bloomfield's list

I should like to see one I also to purchase a pricel one also after the sale. We are always on the lookout for forks &c & it may help part-pay us to this end I have quite a collection of them & rubbings from Scotland &c & ancient relics &c &c I could make quite a exhibition & a sale.
I also have an old painting which I would like to have a feeling of such things see Perhaps that I may be paid decent for the time of my return & am yours truly J. F. Anderson

Mr. Chapman

Dear Sir

The Catalogues & letter were duly rec. The prices realized for No. 755 is all right as I placed the whole in your hands to dispose of as best you could & I am well aware that they were a hard lot to handle & if you dispose of them without selling them I shall think you did well & also that when I dispose of those I may have & may acquire you will be the first ones consulted (if necessary) & shall feel obliged if you as well

The opinion you sent me was ne with regard to the painting I could have selected some fine pieces from your sale & would have done so if I could have seen my way financially as well then as now. As it is I will see that at Mary fields coming sale you can secure me the Gold Eagles of 1796. 1797 1799 & 1803 but paying a reasonable price please do so providing they are strongly struck & up to description as to one grade of it.

In case you fail on any of those then buy the 1806 & 1811 1/2 Eagles Perhaps I ought to state somewhere near what I expect the pieces will sell for & then with your judgment to vary the price on the pieces a little & average the price from one to another as they are selling you can secure all or part in condition as called for Eagles 1796 & 1797 From $16.50 to $18.50 Eagles 1798 & 1803 $17.50 to $16.50 ½ Eagles 1801 & 1811 $6.50 to $7.50

Expect to hear you have received at least a fair proportion of the above. I am yours truly will I will also send you 1796 2 Dime & a few other pieces & let you price Your

price each piece to me if you wish.
I will enclose twenty dollars & pay

I notice an omission or two in the priced catalogue Nos No. 23 & 783. Did you dispose of the U.S. paper currency I sent you face value $2.23 very likely it was worth no premium & you may have made me returns for it although you made no mention only silver disposed of & I have not looked my list over that I made out to see how it would balance.
